History Repeats Itself

Or so they say! Well it seems to do, with Bolton Art Circle. In our case, it's a repetition of the Watercolour Contest which we staged at Smithills Hall last August. Chairman of the Bolton Festival Committee, Elizabeth Tatman, has asked, and we've agreed, to run the Contest again.

Enjoy Bolton's Arts

It will take place on 24th August and this year we've been told there will be an option to paint outside or inside the Hall

We had about 20 artists vying for the prizes last year. (The results can still be seen on our website.) If you're interested, get your name on the list by contacting the Secretary, Roland Arthur, asap.

We did really well at the last Art Fair.

The May donation to Bolton Hospice was about £700

The next three Art Fairs are on: -

15 June, 20 July and 17 August

Last month's Impressionists competition proved a bit too difficult for most of you. It was a detail from "The Boating Party" by Pierre-Auguste Renoir 1880-81

Correct answers were received; from Graham Jones, Marie Howson, Enid Morris, Janice O'Grady and Jean Faulkner

If you would like to submit a competition for In Touch, please contact the Secretary.

Another competition for you.

Can you identify the famous Expressionist painting this detail is from.

Answers to Roland by end of month.

The answer and names of correct submissions in next month's edition. (atowp252)

(N.B. To prevent anyone having an "unfair" advantage, I have again reproduced the image in black and white.)
