Poetry in Motion

Have you seen the delightful little (A6) book of poems entitled "Through the Year"? There is a poem for each month and the accompanying pen and ink sketches are by member Hilda Makin. Together with her poetic friend Gwendoline Droogan, Hilda is raising money for Bolton Hospice (and other charities). Copies of the little book are fortunately still obtainable from Hilda for £1.50. I'm sure she would be happy to post a copy to you, if you were to add the cost of a stamp. Why not give her a ring on 01204 844527 before they've all gone.

Members' News

No new members this time.

Eric Tatton, who had a stroke in early January, continues to make progress and, may return home early this month. We send Best Wishes to him and his family.

In the meantime, Norma Titterton has become Acting Treasurer up to the AGM and Roland's wife Pat Arthur has temporarily relieved Norma of the Membership Secretary's position

Last Drop

The Last Drop Art Fairs will no longer follow the regular pattern of 3rd Sunday of each month. Managers at the Last Drop Village have so many demands on the various rooms that they have asked us to vary the dates. So, in future, you will have to take a special note of the dates.

The next three Art Fairs will be

22 February, 21 March and 18 April
