

Monthly Competition

Last month's picture was a detail from "The Umbrellas" or "Les Parapluies" by Pierre-Auguste Renoir. I had correct answers from Linda Berry, Keith Sloane, Kathleen Anderton, Edith Ellen Sutton, Anna Jan, Beryl Rushton, Russell Eaton and Pauline Kaushal,

This month we have a detail from a painting in the New York Museum of Modern Art by a French painter. Can you tell me the title and the name of the artist?

Answers to Roland please by the end of October. The answer and names of correct submissions will be published in the November edition.

Demonstrations

Member Massoud Mottaghi gave us a good demonstration of how he does his "semi-abstract" pictures for our September demonstration.

Following a last minute cancellation, Demonstrations Secretary June Catterall has managed to procure Brenda Chappell for October. Brenda is a very prolific artist in all media and features in many books and exhibits all over the country. She will be demonstrating Flowers in Pencil and Watercolour. Don't miss this event on Tuesday 9th October 7.30 pm at Highfield Hall. Bring your friends as well.

Art Circle Walking Group

The next walk will be on the 12th October to Lyme Park from Rose Hill Station, Marple. This new linear walk is an interesting mixture of disused rail track, canal, and National Trust parkland footpaths, with good views over the Cheshire Plain.

Meet at Trinity St station at 9.45am, ready to leave on the 9.57 for Piccadilly. Change to platform 2 leaving on the quaint but slow 10.36 to the end of the line at Rose Hill, arriving shortly after 11am. Bring packed lunch, but not forgetting Lyme Park cafe later on. Return via Disley station on the 4.10pm straight through to Bolton (& sometimes Lostock). For further information, contact Paul or Norma Titterton on 01942 814437.

Making A Difference

The BMBC "Making a Difference" event in the Town Hall Square on Friday 14th and Saturday 15th September had been a great success. Paul Titterton created good publicity for us by getting his photo in the Bolton News.
