A thief in Paris wanted to steal some paintings from the Louvre Museum. After careful planning, he got past security, stole the paintings and made it safely to his van. However, he was captured only two blocks away when his van ran out of gas.

When asked how he could mastermind such a crime and then make such an obvious error, he replied, "Monsieur that is the reason I stole the paintings. I had no Monet to buy Degas to make the Van Gogh." (from Anna Chadwick.)

Royal Bolton Hospital Exhibition

Paul and Norma Titterton are looking to change the Main Corridor Exhibition sometime during the last week in January or the first week in February. More details will be available nearer the time from Paul and Norma on 01942 814437.

Don't forget that this exhibition is open to ALL our members and even though you may feel that your work isn't worthy of hanging on the walls of the Hospital, others may consider it worth buying. For the record, we sold 5 out of the 22 works hung this last time. As Paul says, "We need to keep our shop window at RBH prominent". A few weeks after this changeover, Paul and Norma will be thinking about changing the 80 or so, Link corridor pictures. These, as you will remember, are not for sale.
